Customer Comments:

Please Acknowledge

- Disassembly fees will be accrued and added to the overall total if processes are needed.
- Prices noted are only an estimate.
- Damages caused through the water transfer processes are not covered by any warranty or guarantee of replacement.
- Shipping costs are on the customer. Shipping costs are higher for certain items than others (i.e firearms, large products).
- Desired base coats may not be the best course of action. Pristine Kreations will advise the customer in what the best options are, however, the final choice is completely up to the customer.
